First of all this game is pretty fun and challenging. A few ads usually when you start a level or restart a level, but that's all. Now to the part that annoys me. A lot of the low star ones are complaining about how the game "glitches" because it won't let you put a ball in some of the vials.... That's because it's supposed to be that way. FYI the game only lets you put the ball in MATCHING colors unless it is an empty vial. Plus you don't have to drag the ball. You can touch the vial with the ball you want to move and then touch again to the vial where you want the ball to be moved. People over here giving the app bad ratings because they are too dumb to understand the mechanics of the game. Please play and UNDERSTAND the rules before giving something a bad review This is a great little sorting game. It's nice to focus on and good for relaxing and unwinding. Challenging and satisfying.The only issue I've run into is that on some of the higher Hero and Legend levels, there seem to be too many balls of one or two of the colors and I can't figure out what to do with them. I sort everything out and leave the extra balls in their own vials, yet the level still won't end. I've tried adding them to the vials already filled with their own colors (ex: tapping a vial filled with 4 blue balls to add the 5th extra blue ball). I've tried adding the two remaining balls together even if they're different colors (ex: the 5th blue ball and the 5th red ball). I've tried splitting up the colors with extra balls into two vials (ex: one vial with 3 blue balls, another vial with 2 blue balls). Nothing seems to work. Today I have run into a level where I had 5 blue balls, 3 yellow balls, and 4 of every other color. I tried adding the 5th blue ball to the yellow vial which, obviously, didn't work.Still, it's a great game and once this bug is worked out, it'll be even better! Overall I absolutely love this game and am so excited that they have extended the levels!!! However, as I have played there have been a few levels that have come up for me with 5 of one "item" example I am currently playing with the animals and I had 5 frogs in level 2-111 and only 3 pigs. It would not let me put the extra frog with the pig so I had to give in and just skip the level to pass it. I would also love if you could just put the ads maybe every 2 or 3 levels.... I also find it frustrating that up to this point you seem to only be able to have the last few options of ball choices if you pay and for someone who is on a super tight budget spending money on these games is not a thing. Love the concept and overall the game just a few minor frustrations as with anything.
